WHOLEFOOD

SPRING SUMMER 23

Diversity in all aspects. Gender, age, race, sexuality, religion, figure...

The wholefood movement is not only one generation, skin color, gender or sexuality.
It talks to a wide palette of all kinds. All over the world wholefood markets are gathering people, without even trying.
Whole food markets exist in all guises – bazars, grocery stores, supermarkets.

The SS23 collection takes inspiration in the large range of independent people shopping whole food.

Unisex styles in casual sporty qualities combined with feminine shapes in laces, chiffons and colorful prints are the essence of this collection.
The colors are light and bright and perfect for spring.
